Mathematics and Numeracy 	Fractions Learn about simple fractions when making your sandwich for Fireman Sam. Take a picture of you cutting your sandwich in half, making sure each piece is equal. Try cutting your sandwich into quarters next. You could also try this with other foods or items such as playdough. You could also try lining up an equal amount of blocks and then separating them in half. You can learn more about fractions looking at the PowerPoint on shared files on the website and on Teams. Upload pictures to Hwb, so we can see the things you've cut into halves and quarters. Remember, the important thing about fractions is that all parts must be equal. Have a try at completing the fraction worksheet, can you colour in the correct fraction? Find the sheet in the shared folder. Halving numbers- Practise halving numbers up to 20. See if you can complete the halving sheets in the files section of Teams, can you share the spots on the ladybirds out equally? Extra challenge- Can you create subtraction sums to go with your halving work?
