Off with her head!

The Tudors

This topic has a history focus and teaches children about the life and times of the Tudors and Tudor Monarchs in the period of 1485-1603.

This term we will learn:

- About the everyday lives of the Tudor people
- About the Kings and Queens of the Tudor period and their impact on society
- How to use first hand and secondary sources of evidence and evaluate their accuracy
- How human rights have changed since Tudor times
- How to present a persuasive argument
- About the social and moral issues of Tudor times

