AOLE	Challenge – Create a travel brochure about your new hotel/resort
Language Literacy and Communication 	 Write a persuasive piece of writing encouraging people to come to your hotel/resort for a holiday. Try to include the following information: Name of your hotel, which country your hotel is in, the town/city or resort it is in, how many stars the hotel has and the features of the hotel that would make you visit there. Here is an example for you: Want the best of both worlds on your Tenerife holiday? The Hillside Resort Hotel is in the ideal spot. It's close to a fantastic beach for lazy days in the sun, as well as a stone's throw away from the bustling town centre with excellent bars and restaurants. The Hillside is a modern, well-equipped hotel, with attractive, well-kept gardens to be enjoyed by both couples and families. There are 3 grand outdoor pools, 1 of which is for children only. There is plenty of daily entertainment for all the family with a first-class service. The Hillside Resort Hotel has got all the elements you possibly need for a fantastic, All Inclusive holiday. Try and use the following features: Present tense, descriptive language, rhetorical questions, rule of 3, alliteration and use 'you', 'your' and 'we' – we have covered these already this year.
Health and Wellbeing 	 Your hotel will provide daily activities for all people staying at your hotel to keep them active. Think of as many activities you can provide for your guests. Your task is to create a timetable of events for 2 days. Both days start at 10.00 in the morning and finish at 7.00 in the evening. Here is an example to start you off: Monday: 10am – Water Aerobics 11am – Yoga Class 12pm – Beach Volleyball 1pm – Darts Competition Tuesday: 10am - ??? 11am - ??? 12pm - ??? 1pm - ???

Expressive Arts 	 Every holiday brochure has photographs or pictures of the main features of the hotel. Your task is to draw a picture of the pool area of your hotel/resort. Make it as impressive as possible. Think of the following: - The shape of your pool - Have you got any water slides? - Have you got trees and bushes around your pool? - Is there somewhere to get drinks or food by your pool? Look at travel brochures in your house or go online for inspiration.
Science and Technology 	 All hotel rooms now come with modern technology. Can you come up with a list (some of which you can also draw a picture of as well) of all the possible electrical items and any other items you would find in a room in your hotel? Make the list as impressive as possible and be as creative as you want, as you need to encourage people to stay at your hotel. Think about what you, your brother or sister, or your parents would want in your hotel room.
