Try and complete your challenges on J2E as it automatically notifies your teacher once you have completed the task. Remember that if you complete your challenges on OFFICE365 you must share them with your teacher or they will not be able to see your work. Or if you don't have internet access then you can complete the tasks on paper and the worksheets provided.

Language Literacy and Communication 	★★★ Your language challenge this week is to write a biography about the person you admire the most in your family e.g. grandad, sister, brother etc. Your biography should include: • Date of birth • Subheadings e.g. early life, family, education, career, special achievements • Past tense • Timeline of their life to go with your biography • Beautiful drawing of your special person along with something they are known for saying • Third person Along your writing challenge we would like you to complete the comprehension we have included in your learning pack / class page. This comprehension is linked to Internet Safety. There are two different levels, 3 star and 2 star. Choose the one you feel is appropriate for you.
Health and Wellbeing 	★★★ 'A SURVIVAL GUIDE FOR ISOLATION' It's never been more important to think about 'Health & Well-being' than at this point in our lives. We need to ensure our physical health; our diet and our mental health are focused upon. With this in mind, we would like you to create a video called: 'A Survival guide for lockdown'. What tips would you give others on: How to keep fit? What to eat? How to occupy yourselves? How to make sure you're still focusing on your education? How to cope with annoying siblings, being with your family 24-7?! How to stay safe? Etc. Make these as funny, informative and entertaining as you can! You can create a written guide or you can create a video to share your ideas. ★★ ★

Expressive Arts
	Your Art challenge this week is to use your artistic skills to create a still life piece of artwork. Choose two objects from your home. One must be an object that is essential, a need. The other must be a luxury and therefore, something that is non-essential. You can choose from a range of media. You may wish to paint your objects or draw them in pencil. You could even create your artwork as a collage. e.g. fruitbowl, vase, tv, favourite books, phone
Science and Technology
	Your challenge this week is to create a board game linked to WWII. Think about existing board games that you've played or seen. For example, you could base it on snakes and ladders and call it bombs and planes or what about Waropoly where you must collect and invade other countries around the board. You can create these games on paper or card but please remember to include instructions for your game and make any resources like counters to go along with your game. We look forward to playing these when we get back to school.

Mathematics and Numeracy 	★★★ ★★ ★ Bont Budgeting Challenge This week we'd like you to use your math skills to help calculate a budget that will allow you to organise your finances and save money. You'll need to use a range of skills in order to calculate your outgoings and savings. We'd also like you think about how essential some of the items that you're spending your money on actually are. The 3, 2 and 1 star challenges are on the website. Choose the one you feel is appropriate for you. We have included the worksheets in your learning pack / class page.
Humanities 	★★★ ★★ ★ Religions in Swansea This week your Maths challenge links to % and Religion. On your 'Star' sheets you will find data linked to % of religions found in Swansea. We would like you to calculate how many of the population practice the different religions, using the % data. The sheets have differing levels of difficulty, with '2 star' being the most challenging. Good luck! We have included the worksheets in your learning pack / class page.

Article 28: You have the right to a good quality education and your education should help you use and develop your talents and abilities.
